BEST NEW RESTAURANT Table 100

Flowood | 601.420.4202 |
www.tableonehundred.com

Restaurateurs Bill Latham and Al Roberts have done it again. Table 100 hit the scene and had metro Jackson residents heading down Lake-land Drive for its delicious dishes prepared by a German chef. "Chef Mike," as he is known at the restaurant, infuses his menu with his inter-national culinary experiences and Southern fla-vors, giving Mississippi a new spot to rave about.

BEST APPETIZER Guacamole made tableside, Babalu Tacos & Tapas

Jackson | 601.366.5757 | www.babalums.com

Located in Jackson's hip and funky Fondren Arts District, visitors flock to Babalu for its tasty and eclectic tapas-style menu, but it's the fresh Guacamole made tableside that they just can't get enough of. Rumor has it they make more than 700 batches every single week.

Crabmeat Wontons
The Market Café, Louisville: Fried
Pimiento Cheese Balls
Harvey's, Tupelo: Broccoli Bites
Ely's, Ridgeland: Eggplant Ely

BEST STEAK Shapley's

Ridgeland | 601.957.3753 | www.shapleys.ms

Shapley's owners Julie and Scott Koestler take pride in serving the finest cuts of meat and the freshest seafood with unparalleled service. The longevity of this superior steakhouse, estab-lished in 1985, is attributed to its loyal staff, chefs, and patrons. It's no surprise they walk away with the "Best of Mississippi" title year after year.

Tico's, Ridgeland

The Caboose, McComb
Doe's Eat Place, Greenville

BEST BURGER Mugshots

Biloxi, Flowood, Hattiesburg, Starkville, and
Meridian | www.mugshotsgrillandbar.com

There isn't a larger or more diverse selection of gourmet burgers to be found in the Mag-nolia State. Yep, there's a burger on the menu called "Anthony's Peanut Butter Burger," and along with many other unique creations, there is something to please everyone. Each burger offers a half-pound of beef served on a toasted sourdough bun and a side of house-made beer batter fries.

BEST PIZZA Pizza Shack

Jackson | 601.352.2001 | www.thepizzashack-
jackson.com

These are knife-and-fork pizzas, laden with a wide expanse of offerings from smoked Gouda to gyro meat. Try one of their one-of-a-kind creations such as Chicken Curry Delight or the Cajun Joe for a delicious escape from pep-peroni.

BEST FRIED CHICKEN Julep Restaurant & Bar

Jackson | 601.362.1411 | www.juleprestaurant.com

Julep's crispy fried breasts of chicken are bathed in a honey-rosemary glaze for a unique dish that has honored them with many titles—even top 10 in the nation by USA Today. You will never look at a piece of fried chicken the same way again.

Two Sisters' Kitchen, Jackson
Mama Hamil's, Madison
Peggy's, Philadelphia
Old Country Store, Lorman

BEST BREAKFAST - Big Bad Breakfast

Oxford | 662.236.2666 | www.citygroceryonline.com

A huge hit with both the college crowd from Ole Miss and visitors to the Grove, the wait for “BBB” can be more than an hour on Sunday mornings. From Tabasco/Brown Sugar Bacon to “The Awesome” omelet, experience breakfast in a way that only James Beard award-winning chef John Currence can conjure up.

BEST DELI

Newk's

statewide | www.newkscafe.com

Newk's has quickly grown in popularity and in location, with new locations out of state. Described as an express casual dining experience, their array of salads, sandwiches, soups, and pizzas are equally tasty.

BEST BARBECUE

The Little Doey

Starkville, Columbus East and North
662.323.6094 | www.littledoey.com

Mississippi's favorite barbecue joint is still serving the homemade sauce that made Margaret Ann and Barry Wood's spot famous. Their humble beginning in a Starkville gas station has evolved into three bustling locations, but their sauce is just as good as ever.

BEST TAMALES

Doe's Eat Place

Greenville | 662.334.3315 | www.doeseatplace.com

Doe's Eat Place has come a long way since its bootlegging days. Opened as a honky-tonk in the 1940s, the original restaurant is in the back, where word spread about Mamie Signa's tamales. Today, the only thing criminal about Doe's Eat Place is how good those Hot Tamales are.

Tony's Tamales, Jackson and

BEST CORNBREAD

Cock of the Walk

Natchez, 601.446.8920 | Pochahontas,
601.362.0438 | Ridgeland, 601.856.5500
www.cockofthewalk.biz

Some come for fresh fried catfish, others for the fresh cast-iron skillet of cornbread. Hot, buttery, and decadent, it satisfies with every bite. Top it off with a pot-o-greens or a side of fried dill pickles and all will be right with the world.

Mama Hamil's, Madison
Primo's, Flowood and Ridgeland
Ajax, Oxford
The Veranda, Starkville

BEST SWEET TEA

McAlister's

statewide | www.mcalistersdeli.com

Not only has Mississippi fallen in love with this nectar of the South, but a good portion of the country has, too. McAlister's perfectly sweetened concoction is a welcome treat on hot summer days, with or without the large slice of lemon.

Newk's, statewide
Broma's Deli, McComb
Bon Ami, Jackson

BEST SUSHI

Little Tokyo & Sakura Bana

Little Tokyo—Ridgeland, 601.991.3800
Sakura Bana—Jackson, 601.982.3035
www.littletokyo.com

Little Tokyo brought the finest sushi to Mississippi before sushi was hip. Once known as Little Tokyo I and II, the Jackson location is identified as Sakura Bana, but you can still find their creative rolls and superior sushi at both spots.

Umi Japanese Steak House & Sushi
Bar, Starkville

BEST SWEET SHOP/BAKERY - Campbell's Bakery Inc.

Jackson | 601.362.4628 | www.campbellsbakery.ms

What can't Campbell's make? From birthday cakes to cookies, give the bakers a theme and let them run with it. Even though their Iced Teacake Cookies look more like artwork than sugar and flour, they are a customer favorite and found in the display case every day.

Broad Street Baking Company, Jackson
Primos Café & Bake Shop, Flowood, and Ridgeland

Crazy Cat Bakers, Jackson
Jody's Bakery, Hattiesburg

BEST SEAFOOD Mayflower Café

Jackson | 601.355.4122

The Mayflower Café in downtown Jackson has been serving fine seafood since the early 1930s, but it was its recent foray into films (spotted in a scene in the recent Oscar-nominated film The Help) that has thrown it into the spotlight. However, the regulars who frequent here on a predictable schedule can say that the Mayflower offers the best and freshest seafood around. Order anything broiled, and you won't be disappointed.

Walker's, Jackson
Mary Mahoney's, Biloxi
Half Shell Oyster House, Biloxi
AJ's, Flowood

BEST FINE DINING Nick's

Jackson | 601.981.8017 | www.nicksrestaurant.com

The longstanding winner of the best fine dining award does it again. Settling into their Fondren location, the menu boasts eclectic dining to match the heart of the Arts District. Chefs Steven D'Angelo and Frank Szymanski infuse their dishes with the freshness and quality of the Gulf Coast and New Orleans.

Walker's, Jackson
Restaurant Tyler, Starkville
Purple Parrot, Hattiesburg
Parlor Market, Jackson

BEST BUFFET Mama Hamil's

Madison | 601.856.4407 | www.hamils.com

Mama Hamil's Southern Cookin' is just $9.50 for lunch and $12.50 for dinner—and that's all you can eat. This buffet is full of Southern foods, from barbecue ribs to black-eyed peas, macaroni and cheese, and pecan pie.

Two Sisters' Kitchen, Jackson
Movie Star, Hattiesburg

BEST OTHER ETHNIC FOOD Keifer's

Jackson | 601.353.4976 | www.keifers.net

Keifer's is now sporting a new location (don't worry, it's just across the street from where it anchored for more than 30 years) that looks uncannily like the old place. The best part—the delicious wraps they are known for haven't changed a single bit. For years, people have attempted to unearth the secrets to their zazeeki sauce and famous feta dressing, now made in 60-gallon batches three times a week instead of the food processor Paula Coe and Rick Olson started out with. Upgrading is necessary when seating 225 hungry medical personnel, Millsaps kids, and then some.

Aladdin, Jackson and Flowood
Zorba's Greek Tavern, Starkville
Thai House, Jackson

BEST KID-FRIENDLY Sal & Mookie's New York Pizza and Ice Cream Joint

Jackson | 601.368.1919 | www.salandmookies.com

Pizzas flying, red and white checked tablecloths, and an ice cream flavor known as "Superman" make this New York pizza joint in the heart of Jackson kid- and family- friendly. Any night of the week, the place is teeming with kids playing with Wikki Stix, attempting to win the next "Mookie's Wikki Wall Award," and it's okay if your little cousin spills his milk—twice. Friendly service, a bustling atmosphere, and delicious pizza means that kids give Sal & Mookie's a double thumbs up.

Rocket City Diner, Hattiesburg
Burgers and Blues, Ridgeland
Newk's, statewide

BEST BRUNCH SPOT Restaurant Tyler

Starkville | 662.324.1014
www.eatlocalstarkville.com

Why have a plain breakfast when you can order unique creations from Starkville's Chef Ty Thames? Branch out with an Eggs Benedict Po' Boy or a crawfish etouffee omelet known as the "Crawditty," or indulge in one of his famous Belgian waffles like "The Cherry Garcia," featuring vanilla bean ice cream, cherry whipped cream, and candied pecans. Of course you can always order the Classic Breakfast if you are feeling less adventuresome.

BEST ITALIAN

Bravo! Italian Restaurant and Bar

Jackson | 601.982.8111 | www.bravobuzz.com

Bravo's incredible offering of wood-fired pizzas, pastas, and seafood will make you think you've landed in Tuscany. Part of the triumvirate of restaurants owned by Jeff Good and Dan Blumenthal, this neighborhood favorite in Highland Village is good for date night, lunch, or any occasion. You won't be saying anything other than "Mamma Bene" as you leave.

BEST MEXICAN FOOD

Sombra Mexican Kitchen

Ridgeland | 601.707.7950 | www.sombramexican-kitchen.com

Sombra is locally owned and a creation from the masterminds behind Amerigo and Char. It offers the freshest ingredients in a rustic and chic setting. Items such as the Black Bean and Goat Cheese Tamale or Mexican Kitchen Nachos set it apart from the ordinary Mexican restaurant around the corner.

Papito's, Jackson, Flowood, Madison, and Oxford

BEST BLUE PLATE

Primos Café & Bake Shop

Flowood, 601.936.3398 | Ridgeland, 601.898.3600 | www.primoscafe.com

For nearly a century, Primos has been a Jackson staple, providing an array of baked goods and fresh, made-from-scratch dishes. From meatloaf to fried green tomatoes, Primos holds the tradition of a sit-down lunch sacred. Come early, because finding a parking spot or a seat can be difficult during the lunchtime rush.

The Veranda, Starkville

BEST OUTDOOR DINING

Walker's Drive-In

Jackson | 601.982.2633 | www.walkersdrivein.com

Located on North State Street in the heart of Fondren, Walker's is hard to miss with its retro, neon-pink sign. While not a "drive-in" in the usual sense of the word (you won't be eating in your car), the outside patio offers a great spot to people watch while enjoying some of Walker's famous tamales.

BEST CATFISH

Jerry's

Florence | 601.845.8860 | www.jerryscatfish-house.com

When you see the giant igloo (surrounded by cars from around the country) and a line out the door, you know that you have found Jerry's. Famous for its delicious catfish, Jerry's is fried-food heaven (think of everything from frog legs to dill pickles) on Highway 49 South.

BEST COFFEE SHOP

Cups: An Espresso Cafe

Jackson, Madison, Flowood, Magee, Brandon, and Ridgeland | www.cupspressocafe.com

Cups has been roasting its own coffee here in Mississippi since 1995, and the unparalleled flavor can be smelled when walking into one of its many locations. The "Blondie" is for those with a sweet tooth, while the "Shot in the Dark" is not for the faint of heart. Not just for the artsy crowd, Cups will satisfy coffee addicts all over the state.

BEST DESSERT - Tiramisu, Amerigo

Ridgeland | 601.977.0563 | www.amerigo.net

This light, creamy confection could possibly be the best tiramisu ever made. In fact, customers are known to order it by the panful to take home. You might find some better...say, in Italy.

BEST MUSEUM - Mississippi Museum of Art

Jackson | 601.960.1515 | www.msmuseumart.org

In the heart of downtown Jackson, the Mississippi Museum of Art features a beautiful space with high ceilings and light wooden floors—and the best of Mississippi artists. While art visitors can enjoy a lunch at The Palette café in the large entryway of the museum, the openness of the architecture reflects their mission statement “to engage Mississippians in the visual arts.” In the spirit of this statement, the new Art Garden opened last fall, a public green space in the middle of downtown, with outdoor art installations and a performance stage.

BEST PLACE TO FIND A GREAT BOOK

Lemuria

Jackson, 601.366.7619 www.lemuriabooks.com

The Lemurians were said to be able to communicate through mental telepathy until the gods grew displeased, took away this highly useful skill, and left them with books. However, the literary crowd isn't complaining, since it left us with Lemuria. This is everything a bookstore should be—somewhere to browse for hours on end without really knowing what you're looking for and stumbling across a great read.
